Dear Mr. Braun,

We very much appreciate your kind letter but will not be able to take advantage of your invitation for the Director to speak at your luncheon meeting. Mr. Bush has announced that he will be resigning as Director in January, and no new appointment has been made.

You may also wish to consider the fact that the Central Intelligence Agency is not a law enforcement agency and our Director is therefore usually reluctant to speak to police organizations because of the confusion this kind of appearance causes in the minds of the public and the press.

We nevertheless appreciate your interest and your invitation to participate in your important meeting. Good luck in your endeavors.

Director of Central Intelligence

Mr. Andrew Falkiewicz
Assistant to the Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Falkiewicz;

On Wednesday, February 16, 1977, the Los Angeles County Peace Officers' Association will sponsor a luncheon honoring Reserve Police Officers, Reserve Deputy Sheriff, and their employers from the Los Angeles County area.

The luncheon will be held at the Los Angeles Police Academy, 1880 North Academy Drive, Los Angeles, California at 12:00 noon. The Association expects attendance to exceed 400 persons.

Reserve Officers are citizen volunteers who support law enforcement by working police assignments such as, patrol, vice, intelligence, and community relations.

The Association would be honored to have Mr. George Bush, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, as our keynote speaker.

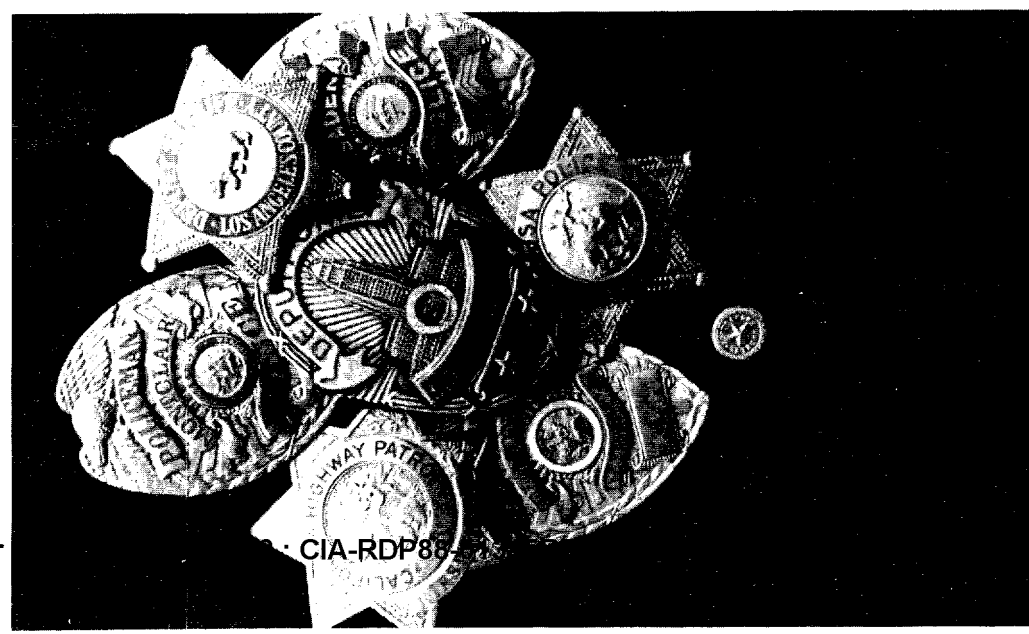

The Los Angeles County Peace Officers' Association is a professional organization comprized of judges, prosecuting attorneys, law enforcement personnel from Federal, state, and local agencies and corporate Chief Special Agents assigned to the Los Angeles County area. The Association is not a wage or labor organizing group, but is active in legislation, education, and professional development.

I look forward to hearing from you and thank you for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,

Brent A. Braun
Member, Executive Committee

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BELONG

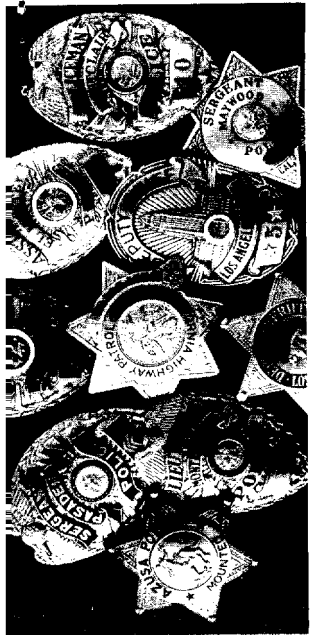

The Association provides false arrest insurance for its members. Through large group participation our policy provides many exclusive features not found in other policies. Premium rates are considerably less than smaller groups might pay. Such insurance is written only as a group policy and is not available to individuals.

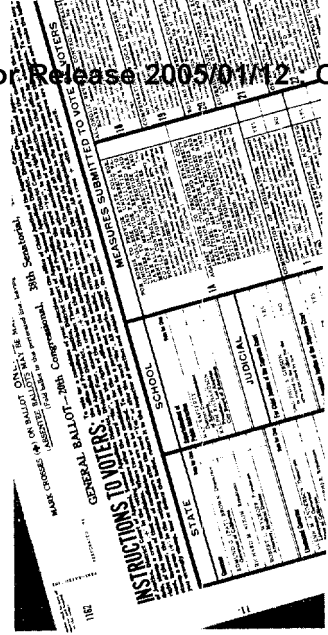

Association activities give members the opportunity to meet and visit with fellow officers from other jurisdictions. Membership comes from all levels of law enforcement and all ranks within an organization are eligible. Personal acquaintanceship is of inestimable value in the performance of the police task in today's complex society.

The Association supports the historic tradition that the police are the public and the public are the police; the police being only members of the public who are paid to give full-time attention to duties incumbent upon every citizen. Effectiveness of police effort is dependent upon public support. Educational programs, press releases and public appearances are directed toward promotion of this concept.

The Association brings about closer teamwork and co-operation among all law enforcement agencies through committees, personal contacts and educational sessions. Membership in our organization comes from all levels of government: City, county, state and federal, and from Chief Special Agents and their associates.

The Association originates and supports legislation benefiting all law enforcement officers and acts as a clearinghouse for legislative changes submitted by any member. It has representation on committees studying legislation at the State level. Our program is closely allied with that of other peace officer organizations in the State.

At the regular monthly luncheon meetings the Association presents educational programs, prominent speakers, and panel discussions designed to elevate the level of knowledge and professional competency of its members. In addition training seminars are conducted as the need arises. Educational materials are printed and distributed to the membership.
